ED L. EISLEY BOUND OVER.

Charged With Stealing a Hop Receipt Valued at $130.

Sunday morning Chief of Police Dilley returned from St. Helens, Columbia county, where he arrested Ed L. Eisley, charged with the theft of a hop receipt, from which he realized $130. The receipt was the personal property of Mrs. Phoebe Carter, but the complaining witness is Frank Kaiser, from whom the receipt was stolen. The theft occurred on or about October, 1895. The Kaiser boys secured their man with the intention of delivering him over to the police at Salem. JOURNAL readers are acquainted with the escape of Mr. Eisley, a full account of which was printed in this paper at the time. He escaped our vigilant policemen and was not heard of until last week, where it was learned that he was living in the mountains, seven miles from St. Helens.

He was arranged before Recorder Edes this morning, and, in order to secure an immediate trial, Mr. Eisley waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $250, in default of which he was committed to the county jail. His case will probably be examined at this session of the circuit court. As the evidence is said to be very conclusive, it is probable that he may serve a term in the penitentiary.

SOUTH SALEM MEETINGS.—The meetings at Leslie M. E. church will be continued during the present week. Revival services at 7:30 each evening. Bible readings at 2:30 p. m. each afternoon and children's meetings at 4 p. m. The interest has increased. A great work has been done in the church; several converted, and we still look for greater things. All are invited to attend.

SOCIETY CHRONICLE.

Local News of Social and Fraternal Events. Miss Edna Price returned this afternoon from a short visit with her parents, at Albany. Miss Florence Mosier went to Woodburn this afternoon to accept a position in a millinery establishment. Mrs. L. G. Adair, of Eugene, returned home today, after a short visit in this city, the guest of Mrs. Richard Dearborn.

A New England supper will be given in the parlors of the Baptist church Tuesday evening, from 5 to 8. Supper will be served by maids in costumes of yesteryear, and an entertaining program has been prepared. Admission 25c.

GRADUATING EXERCISES. The graduating exercises of the Salem public schools will take place Wednesday night, and as much interest is taken in the coming event the attendance will doubtless be large. Tickets are now on sale at Dearborn's and Patton Bros.

LE DEUX TEMPS. The new club under the above appropriate name will hold its initial club dance Tuesday evening at the Red, being the first of a series of six. All will be of an informal character, and doubtless highly enjoyable, as the club is composed of a select membership.

CONGREGATIONAL ENTERTAINMENT. An excellent entertainment will be given at the Congregational church this evening, a splendid program having been prepared for the occasion, in which representative musicians and elocutionists are numbered. All recitations will be delivered in costume, rendering them doubly interesting.

HAYSEED BAND. The "Hayseed Band" of the "Uncle Josh Spruceby" company will parade the city streets at noon Thursday, all members being dressed in New England country style. "Uncle Josh" himself will lead, umbrella and carpet sack in hand, and while their appearance is most laughable, their music is of the best, the band being one of unusual merit.

WOES OF LEAP YEAR. Two prominent young men of this city were invited to attend an evening party. In fact it was a leap year affair, and they had been invited by the respective young ladies to call for them at their homes. One young man was directed to call at the proper house, but called at the wrong place the first break. At the second place he was invited in and conversed with the hostess for about 20 minutes before he discovered his mistake. Finally, after another attempt or two, he reached the right house. The other gentlemen too had a time. The young lady whom he was to accompany to the party resembled her sister so much, that he made a mistake and went with the latter, and did not learn the difference until they started to return home.—Eugene Guard.

WILL WED. The marriage of Miss Ella M. Breyman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Breyman, to Mr. Hal D. Patton, of Salem, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Portland, February 14, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. No cards.

Miss Breyman is quite well known here, having many friends in the Capital city. She is a charming young lady, possessed of many accomplishments and an amiable disposition. Mr. Patton is one of the most progressive of Salem's young business men, and is possessed of sterling qualities, which render him most popular. After the ceremony the bridal couple will return at once to Salem, where they will reside in the future, their home being the elegant E. N. Cooke mansion on Court street.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE. A reporter witnessed the Christian Science religious service conducted Sundays at 10:30 in the Woman's Relief Corps hall, Insurance block, by Mesdames Wilson and Wheeler, "scientists" of the Church of Christ. About forty were present, and the service consisted of singing, three-fourths reading of the Scripture and one-fourth from Mary Baker Eddy's

"Science and Health Key to the Scriptures." Then all repeat the Lord's prayer and the scientific statement of being. The Scripture readings are the references in the Bible to the International Sunday school lesson and the lesson itself. The children are taught the ten commandments, Lord's prayer, sermon on the Mount, psalms and passages of Scripture they can understand. In the Sunday service there is no talk or sermon, and no reading but from the two books read. The service is marked by the utmost primitive simplicity, and the reporter was surprised at the absolute adherence to Scripture and the absence of all demonstrations. No collection was taken and beyond hearty hand shaking, cordial greetings, and no inquiries after the health of the members, which seemed to be taken for granted, it was a gathering not marked from other religious gatherings and composed of very much the same class of people. Thinking our readers might be curious to know about the new "church" in our midst, we print the above facts.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET. The most pleasant event in this winter's social life of the Y. M. C. A. took place Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, the occasion being the enjoyment of the banquet tendered the members of the competing membership teams. The ladies auxiliary had prepared a feast for the Reds, the prominent feature of which was turkey, and mush and milk for the Yellows. The tables were set in a most tasteful manner, and presented a fine appearance. At 8 o'clock the Reds and Yellows marched in and took their places, the former accompanied by the new members secured by them. Mr. J. B. T. Tuttle then called the assembly to order, and Deacon Hatch offered an invocation. When the Yellows had proven their willingness to gracefully acknowledge their defeat by partaking of their humble fare with avidity they were invited to partake of the turkey banquet upon a motion of Mr. Wiggins to that effect. When appetites were appeased a flash light picture of the scene was taken, then toasts were proposed and responded to in an appropriate manner by Messrs. Albert and Sroat, captains of the competing teams, Hon. C. B. Moores, John H. Albert, Prof. F. S. Dunn and Frank E. Hodgkin. Vocal solos and duets were rendered by H. S. Gile, and Prof. Heritage and Miss Huelat, they being heartily encored. W. C. Paige, secretary of the association, spoke in a very encouraging manner to the workers and their friends, as did Geo. Odell in his address, "The Fruits of the Contest."

One of the most pleasing, as well as most appropriate, was Prof. Dunn's response to the toast "Our Best Helpers—the Ladies," paying them a well-merited tribute for the zeal and labor in preparing the elegant banquet, and three rousing cheers were given them in token of the appreciation of all. The affair which was most successfully managed in all respects, was closed with the singing of the doxology. The Y. M. C. A. now has a membership of 365, a very creditable number for the size of the city, and reflects much credit upon those whose efforts increased the number so materially. A fresh impetus has been given the association, and it is hoped that the zeal will not diminish, as the institution is of inestimable benefit.

BORN. GANTENBEIN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gantenbein, Salem, Saturday, February 8, 1896, a son.

DIED. DIMELER.—At the Salem hospital, February 10, 1896, Fred Dimeler, aged 65 years. Deceased was for many years a resident of North Salem, and engaged in the sewing machine business. He leaves a wife and four children. His funeral will be held at the Catholic church Tuesday at 2 p. m. Burial in the St. Joseph's cemetery.

Fred Dimeler has for many years been a helpless invalid. Three weeks ago an operation was performed but brought no relief. His many friends will regret to learn of his death.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.—And the widows of deceased veterans who desire the passage of the bill now before congress, granting them pensions, should at once address General Commander T. A. Wood, Portland, Or., who has the matter in charge. He requires your assistance in this important work. Give your present full postoffice address, and the name of captain served under.

Cure for Headache. As a remedy for all forms of Headaches Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habit of sick headache yields to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial in case of habitual constipation. Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at Fred A. Legg's Drug store.
